The Manamaler Store. Plain Fabrics for Dresses

DRESS GOODS supremacy. What does it mean? That the woman may depend on this store, assured that she has the largest collection of the correct fabrics of the world to choose from; that she shall pay only their fair worth-and, as a rule, that means a saving quite worth while.

The collections of ready-made gowns here are always widely interesting -authoritative in style; elegant. The dress goods here holds an equally commanding position.

Plain fabrics are in great demand—we had most faith in them months ago, and our stock of Broadcloths and Venetian Cloths is almost adequate for the demand. They do not need a line of advertising, but if our store news is to be valuable to you we must give frequent and fair notice of our readiness with proper goods.

Two hundred and eighty-four shades of Broadcloths, | 52 inches wide, 75c., $1, $1.25 and up to $3. Twelve of the styles in mingled colors.

Fifty-nine colorings of Venetian Cloth, 50 in., at $1.25 and $1.50; 54 in., at $2; 54 in., mingled colorings, at $1.25.

Silk Remnants

We have eight hundred pieces of silk-one to eight yards in each-the ends, first and last, from the past few days' selling. Each is marked

at just half price

-half the amount the yardage would cost if taken by you from full regular That is statement sufficient to sell the silks-this further word of our way of selling last of lots:

We should have a bargain day, maybe, if the odds of each week could be counted on to fill it, but they cannot-and as our system of business is not planned to cover shams, we could not afford to try. The goods sold here are not finally sold until the purchaser is satisfied-if we foisted off make-believe "bargains," they would be sent back. And that is the small part of it-you would make your own estimate of further Wanamaker announcements, and we should be losers both in friendship and goods.

"Bargains"—only real ones deserve the name—bargains must happen. Our odds and ends, good as carloads to the user, but very much in our way and gladly sold at a loss. Often odd cases from mills, remnants to them as sumer. These are linen handkerbroken dozens and pieces are to us. Quite as big losses taken—as big values given to the purchaser here.

Such selling is entirely dignified here—is in nowise different from the handling of our finest goods.

And happens just any time-the daily news will keep all posted. The silk remnants, black and colors, ready this morning.

Men's Business Suits

Look at it this way-we believe everyone will admit that this business is modern and progressive; up-to-date in all its ways; and will be willing to believe us when we say that men educated in their line of business study its requirements constantly, study here and abroad.

And this business was founded to supply men with proper apparelwas a clothing business first and for long, and has kept on growing in that branch while other branches have come, and grown, too.

The clothing business may be measured by the store as a whole. What you think of the store, think of the clothing. A tailor shop under the roof a simple matter. The Century is a with other stores, for convenience and right economy. Forty-five styles of suits at $15-running strongly to the double-breasted vest notion.

Other suits at $10, $12 and $13.50. No man can judge entirely by this advertisement-we make no claim in it of something for nothing; not even of most at any price, but we feel safe in asking men to come and see for themselves.
